The Danger of Falling Away from the Church Because of Sin ✕

Levi Bakerink

Fellowship Hall

Scripture Passage: 1 Corinthians 10:1-22

“For I do not want you to be unaware, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, ‘The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play.’ We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. I speak as to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say. The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. Consider the people of Israel: are not those who eat the sacrifices participants in the altar? What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?”

☼ Events happening in the broader Christian community

1. Evening Women's Bible Study ✕

The Women's Evening Bible Study will begin Thursday, February 25th @ 7:30 pm. You can join our study in person at the church or via Zoom.

For all those who have already signed up, please be sure to stop by the church office and pick up your study guide and book for our study. Please do not pick up a study guide and book if you haven't already told me that you are coming because I only ordered study guides and books for those who have already told me that they are coming.

If anyone else is interested in joining our study please let me know ASAP as we would love to have you and I can try to order you a study guide and book.

Contact Katharine via email or text if planning to attend.

Meetings and Events

2. Morning Women's Bible Study ✕

Please join the women of ASRPC, beginning Monday, February 1, 2021, for the ten-week spring session of our Bible study. We will meet in the fellowship hall from 9:30-11:30 am each Monday.

Nursery and monitored school study are provided for children of all ages. Terrill Wade will guide us through Paul Kooistra's Thirty-One Days of Grace Devotional. Sign up on the sheet on the bulletin board outside the fellowship hall or by emailing Deborah Miller at mrsruggles@gmail.com.

3. Parenting Class +

A parenting class will be offered on Monday nights, starting February 1. Consider it a "date night" and join us for the semester! Class will meet from 7 – 9 pm at the church. This is a class for husband and wife to take together, because one of the most important things about parenting is that husband and wife be "on the same page" in thinking about the family and children.

Please contact Rick or Kathy Hutton for more information: rick@allsaintspres.org or kathy@familyhutton.com

4. Wheelchair Collection Month ✨

Do you or someone you know have a manual wheelchair—of any type, in any condition—that is no longer needed? Wheels For The World is a disability outreach program of Joni Eareckson Tada's (Joni and Friends) Ministries. Collected items, including wheelchair parts, are sent to correctional facilities across the U.S. where they are restored to "like new" condition. From there they are distributed by trained therapists & mechanics to needy people in other countries. Each individual is also given a Bible in his/her own language and hears the gospel message, a clear demonstration of God's love in action. God has used the COVID epidemic to bring about a new way of outreach, called Joni's House. Already in El Salvador, Uganda, India, and Nepal, facilities have been constructed that address the spiritual, physical, social, and economic needs of families dealing with disability. Wheelchairs are being delivered to these facilities as well. More information can be gained online at joniandfriends.org. Questions and donations can be directed to: Carolyn Gile, a local Chair Corp. Rep, at: mcgile24@gmail.com or (804) 647-5430. Donated chairs or parts of chairs will be picked up and a tax-deductible receipt will be provided.
